About us

Exceptional food, right where you are

Scroll

We're Robin and Rebecca from Hedgerow Catering, and we've been cooking at Tallow Angel for over ten years. We live in a cottage in the woods. We know the seasons when the hives, the kitchens and the hedges. A Thousandfolk stall — and an open space in Earnshall's Saturday market where we sell our honey.

Everything we cook is made from the Tallow Angel Garden, from local farms we've known for years, or foraged from the hedgerows nearby. Jane runs one and a half acres of kitchen garden organically, and it makes your stay considerably unforgettable.

Our dishes, ingredients and menus are personalised, and we're always happy to build something entirely bespoke around what you love.
