Sparkling Wines

Sauvion Cremant de Loire – sourced from the famous Muscadet house of Chateau du Cleray, this Cremant is traditionally made with Chardonnay and Chenin Blanc. With a persistent fizz this sparkler has a fresh cooked lemon scent throughout its taste.
£16.00

Pinot Noir sparkling rose (2016). A single variety, single estate, excellent rosé sparkling from local Polgoon vineyard. A delicate pink colour and a golden hue, with a nose of zesty citrus and toasted crumb. A delicate palate with hints of tangerine, honey and spice
£30.00

Polgoon Sparking Wine. A superior fruit is pressed and fermented to produce a light, dry sparkling wine, then infused with a subtle splash of elderflower juice. The Methode Traditionelle of secondary bottle fermentation, as used by producers of the very finest French fizz, creates a quality sparkling wine with a persistent mousse of small bubbles. Wonderful floral notes of elderflower on the nose with a crisp, dry finish.
70CL; 10.5%, Winner of the Taste of the West Gold Award 2015 £30.00

White Wines

Ernest Wein – Pinot Gris 2019 – Pinot Gris is also known as Pinot Grigio, but this French style of wine is elaborated in Alsace. It shows a higher alcohol (13.5%) over apple scented fruit finishing with a concentrated citrus finish £12.50

Cono Sur Reserve Especial - Riesling 2019 – Bio Bio – Hailing from the cool southern climes of Chile's Bio Bio Valley this racy Riesling will thrill the plate with cooked Russet Apple notes with light spices and a dry aromatic finish. £13.50

Ventoux Blanc 2019 – Southern Rhone is the home of wines from around Mont Ventoux. Grapes like Grenche Blanc, Marsanne and Rousanne are harvested to create a ripe, rich white with acacia blossom and freshness to the palate. £12.50

Diverso –Rose – Puglia 2019 - An award-winning Rose elaborated with the indigenous red grape, Negroamaro offering a blush with powerful red fruit notes over a food friendly dry finish £12.50

Red wines

Cono Sur Reserva Especial Pinot Noir 2019 – San Antonio – reeking of soft fruit and finishing with concentrated Cherry notes over an easy-sipping texture prove a fine example of modern Pinot Noir from Chile, £13.50

Hugonell Rioja Joven 2018 – With a lead from the grape Tempranillo harvested at optimum ripeness this Joven (young) Rioja is best served cool as a summer red. Versatile and packed full of red and black spicy fruit, it's a sure-fire winner £12.50

Barbera d'Asti Superiore 2017 – The grape Barbera is an ancient varietal from Piedmont in North West Italy. Offering light tannins, cherry and spice Barbera is a true favourite matched with Tomato based Italian or Mediterranean dishes. £12.50

Grignan les Adhemar – Cotes du Rhone Villages 2017 – rare Grenache-based rouge from the Cotes du Rhone. Ripe, easy going style is its hallmark with a cocktail of summer fruits and a peppery finish £13.00
